

The Wilmington Tigers Coaching Biography

Kevin Igo - 9th Grade

Kevin Igo has been involved in youth basketball since 2000. Kevin got his start in coaching at St John the Beloved Catholic Grade School. From 2000 through 2005, Kevin coached both boys and girls at all levels and was instrumental in developing basketball clinics for 3rd and 4th graders and had the opportunity to coach the top teams for both boys and girls' 7th and 8th grade CYM teams.

From 2004 thru 2008 - Kevin was the head coach for the boys Hockessin Hawk's AAU basketball program. During this time he coached 5th through 10th grade boys teams against top national and regional teams.

In 2006, Kevin founded and head coached the girls Hockessin Hawks AAU team. Here he coached 5th and 6th grade girls in a variety of summer, winter and AAU level tournaments.

Kevin coached with the Delaware Angels AAU club before joining the Tigers last year. Kevin brings a philosophy that starts and ends with Team. He challenges his players to "get out of their comfort zones" and play loose and instinctively. He coaches through positive reinforcement with the number one priority of developing his players' basketball I.Qs.

Growing up Kevin played basketball for St Helena's Catholic School and played varsity high school basketball for St Elizabeth's High School.