

Coach Payne will be entering his fifth season coaching AAU girl's basketball. Coach Payne spent his first two seasons with the Chester County Wizards and the last two seasons with the Wilmington Tigers. Coach Payne's teams have played in the AAU National Championships in two of the last three seasons.

In addition to Coaching AAU basketball, Coach Payne has fifteen years of coaching youth basketball at St. John the Beloved and Ursuline Academy. Coach Payne has worked with boys and girls from third grade through eighth grade.

A native of New York, Coach played basketball at Massapequa High School and New Paltz State University. Growing up in New York gave me the opportunity to play with and against outstanding talent.

Coach Payne's top priority is to improve every skill for every player and help them reach their maximum potential. "I want to get my players ready for their High School careers."
